[XXVth Year.] THE [No. 1266.]

MARYLAND GAZETTE.

THURSDAY, NOVEMBER 23, 1769.

CONSTANTINOPLE, June 16.

A GREAT Number of Exceſſes having been lately committed, by a Set of young Men, who endeavoured to ſtir up an Inſurrection, it determined the Grand Signior to ſtay in this City, inſtead of going to paſs the Summer at his Country Seat, called the Daout Pacha. Theſe Rioters had broke open almoſt all the Doors of the Greek Churches, carried off the Plate and Ornaments, and groſsly abuſed the Eccleſiaſtics. They even prepared to demoliſh the Temple of Balkli, when, being hindered by the Guards, they had the Audacity to make great Reſiſtance. Ten of theſe Villains have been ſent to Priſon, by Order of the Sultan, and condemned to paſs the Remainder of their Days in Confinement. A moſt rigourous Ordinance is juſt publiſhed by the Porte, declaring, that all Perſons who are found in Arms, committing the leaſt Diſorder in the Streets, ſhall not only be puniſhed with Death themſelves, but even all their Families; this Proclamation ſeems to have reſtored Tranquillity to the City.

July 3. It was reported ſome Time ago, the Grand Signior had ordered the Grand Viſir to enter Poland, at the Head of the Ottoman Army. This was, at firſt, looked upon as ill grounded, but is ſince found to be conſiſtent with a Manifeſto which the Porte has communicated to all the foreign Miniſters reſiding here, and by which the Grand Signior declares War againſt the King of Poland. Nevertheleſs, according to the laſt Advices from Moldavia, the Grand Viſir, inſtead of marching into that Kingdom himſelf, has ſent thither an Army, under the Command of Mehemet Patcha, Beglerbey of Romelia. It is pretended, that Count Potocki, one of the Chiefs of the Confederates of Bar, has engaged, in Conſideration of 25,000 Piaſtres, to deliver up to him the ſtrong Fortreſs of Kaminieck.

ALICANT, June 27. Laſt Saturday a Mooriſh Veſſel appeared within Sight of this Road, whereof the King's Galliots, who were there, having Intelligence, immediately hoiſted Sail to give them Chace. After purſuing her Four or Five Hours, the Commandant and Three others of the Galliots joined him, and gave her a Broadſide with Guns loaded with broken Pieces of Braſs (Grape-Shot.) This Gun-Shot forced the Corſair to bring too and ſurrender. The Crew conſiſted of 42 Men, 5 of whom were killed and 9 wounded. The Veſſel is brought in here, but ſhe is to be ſent to Carthagena.

BASTIA, July 8. It is ſaid that the Count de Vaux has received Orders from the King, to leave 10,000 Men in Garriſon in the Iſland; and that his Majeſty, as a Mark of his Satisfaction for this Conqueſt, had aſſigned him, as Governor General, an Appointment of 75,000 Livres a Year.

PETERSBURG, July 18. The famous Count de Tottleben, after having received his Pardon, as has been mentioned, entered into the Service of the Empreſs, in Quality of Major General, and will be employed in the Army. He hath alſo been decorated with the Enſigns of the Order of St. Anne. Beſides which, he hath ſolicited the Payment of the Appointment of Major General from the Moment of his having been put in Confinement to this Time. If her Majeſty ſhould grant him this Favour, he will receive about 18,000 Rubbles.

TOULON, July 18. A Courier is juſt arrived here from Paris, with Orders to the Intendant of the Marine, to ſend a Number of Veſſels to Corſica, in order to bring back 22 Battalions of the King's Troops.

PARIS, July 24. Many conſiderable Bankrupcies are talked of here. The moſt important one, is that of the Marquis Roux de Corſe, that Merchant of Marſeilles ſo conſiderable, ſo magnificent, who, in our laſt Quarrel with England, had declared War in his own Name againſt that Kingdom. His Bankrupcy is computed at Twenty Millions.

Aug. 4. The 16th of laſt Month a violent Storm of Thunder did great Damage to the Abbey Church of St. Corentin, near Mantes. It fell firſt on the great Bell, which it broke all to Pieces; it then ran along the Roof and Timber Work, ſtripped off great Quantities of the Lead Work without melting it, and ſhivered into a Thouſand Pieces ſeveral large Beams, without ſetting Fire to any Part. It then entered within Side the Mouldings and Cornices. One Woman, who was in the Church, was thrown topſy turvy, and carried ſome Yards Diſtance from whence ſhe was at Prayers; another Woman had her Head Dreſs torn off by the Shocks. Both of them are but ſlightly wounded. The Thunder then ſtruck a Window of the Choir, from thence it entered into the Gallery and the Abbeſs's Wardrope, which it threw down, and ended its Progreſs before the Door of the Abbey.

MANTUA, July 26. The celebrated Paoli is now here, and lives in a very elegant Manner. He ſets out in a few Days for Vienna, being it is ſaid, to have a Command in the Emperor's Service.

From the Frontiers of POLAND, July 28. Letters from Kaminieck, of the 18th Inſtant, adviſe, that the great Ruſſian Army is in full March to give Battle to the Grand Viſir; ſo that we may ſoon expect great News.

LONDON,

Aug. 2. It is ſaid, that a commercial Treaty of great Advantage to this Nation, is already far advanced between the Court of London, and his ſublime Highneſs the Grand Signior.

By Letters from Senegal we learn, that through the indefatigable Induſtry of Governor O'Hara, not only the King of Barach, but divers other African Princes, have been brought over to the Engliſh Intereſt.

Aug. 3. Letters from Berlin import, that the Return of the Couriers had of late been obſerved to be very frequent between that City and Peterſburg; by which it was conjectured ſome Affair of Importance is in Agitation between the Two Courts.

It is now currently reported, in the Naval Department, that his Royal Highneſs the Duke of Cumberland, will early next Spring ſail with a Squadron of the Line to the Mediterranean, having one or Two Flags under his Command; with this Armament ſome Tranſports will go out, to relieve the Garriſons of Gibraltar, &c. and it is even ſaid, that if the French will perſiſt in making a Stand on the Iſland of Corſica, this Force will be properly exerted againſt them.

Several of the old large Ships of the Line, we hear, are determined to be cut down, in order to act next Spring, in a more uſeful Manner than Guard-Ships, &c.

Aug. 4. A Correſpondent aſks, "Cannot the Friends of the preſent Adminiſtration diſplay the Virtues of their Patrons and Paymaſters, without detracting from the Merit of Lord Chatham; which Practice they have begun to renew within theſe few Days?" Our Correſpondent adds, "If theſe Hirelings write 'til they are blind, they never will convince the Public, that Prince and People were not happy during that great Man's Adminiſtration, or that they are ſo now."

They write from Algiers, by Way of Gibraltar, that out of Five Hundred Men that compoſed the Caravan to the Banks of the River Niger, Two Hundred and Seventy-five died on their Paſſage out and home, ſo that they began to be tired of an Undertaking attended with ſuch Hazard, and very little Advantage.

Auguſt 5. The Three Supervifors appointed to go out in the Eaſt-India Company's Service, are to be bound under ſuch legal Reſtrictions, as Meſſrs. York and Wedderburn ſhall fabricate, and it is aſſured, each of the Three Supervifors will be obliged to enter into Bond of 200,000 l. forfeitable, on Condition that either of them interferes with any Branch of Trade during their reſpective Superviforſhips. The immenſe Profits and Sums of Money which might have been unfairly, yet undiſcoverably made, by appointing a Secretary, have determined the Eaſt-India Directors to make no ſuch Appointment; but they have hit upon a middle Mode, that is to ſay, each of the Three Supervifors, is allowed to take out with him a Writer, or free Merchant, who is to act as a Secretary: So that the great Profits will now accumulate to the Supervifors themſelves, Share and Share alike.

Great Altercations have lately paſſed in the News-Papers, between George Onſlow, Eſq; and Parſon Horne, concerning a Sum of Money paid by one Mr. Burns, for a Place. A Correſpondent aſks this Queſtion; "Suppoſing a Gentleman in Power ſhould keep a Miſtreſs, and ſuch Lady ſhould receive a Sum of Money from a Man, to procure from her Keeper a Place for him, whether ſuch Money ſo received by the Miſtreſs, could be ſaid to be given to, or received by her Keeper?"

Yeſterday ſeveral conſiderable Bets were laid, at the Weſt End of the Town, that War would be declared by the Engliſh againſt the French, before the Firſt Day of February next.

The Rev. Mr. Horne, we hear, has declared he will not detain any Counſel to plead his Cauſe if Mr. Onſlow ſhould proſecute him, but is determined to claim the ancient Cuſtom and Right of an Engliſhman, to plead his own Cauſe. Though Cuſtom, Precedent, and ſome Law Statutes, are againſt it, yet it is ſaid he will ſtand up for and endeavour to regain that noble Priviiege to the People.

Our Clergy, it is ſaid, at preſent apply themſelves to the ſtudy of Politics, as the moſt promiſing Road to Preferment, it being computed there are not more than 4000 Livings in the Kingdom, and above 8000 Clergymen to ſupply them.

We hear ——— Dalrymple, Eſq; who has received Public Marks of Approbation from the Honourable the Eaſt India Company, together with a Preſent of 5000 l. for his great Improvements and uſeful Diſcovery in Navigation, is going out to make a Settlement in the Iſland of Saloo.

They write from Sweden, that there is a great Scarcity of Money in that Country, and particularly in the public Treaſury, in Conſequence of the bad Circumſtances into which it has been brought by the Intrigues and Practices of the French, that there is a Neceſſity for making every Saving in the national Diſburſements.

In Conſequence of the above œconomical Plan, it is deſigned to re-call all the Miniſters to foreign Courts of a higher Claſs, and ſend only Conſuls and Agents; the other being a great Expence, without doing the leaſt Service to the State, as Matters are now ſituated. How far this may hold good with Reſpect to the Swediſh Concerns at the Court of London, they, who are acquainted with them, can beſt judge.

Letters received from Portugal, mention, that Mr. Wilkes's Antagoniſt, Capt. Forbes, who has a Regiment in that Service, was lately married at Liſbon, to a young Lady of a noble Family there, and conſiderable Fortune.

Aug. 8. Freſh Difficulties have ariſen, we hear, reſpecting the Commiſſion of Supervifors of the Eaſt-India Company's Affairs in India. The Miniſtry inſiſt on ſeeing the private Inſtructions to the Supervifors, as well as the Commiſſion, which the Directors are backward in complying with.

Great Doubts have ariſen with reſpect to the Legality of the Power given by the above Commiſſion to the Supervifors, and it is ſaid the Miniſtry think it a Point of ſo much national Conſequence, that they have referred the Conſideration of it to ſome great Perſons in the Law.

It is ſaid a Proſecution will be commenced againſt a patriotic Merchant of this City, for daring to offer a Bribe of 5000 l. to his Grace the Duke of Grafton, for the ſecuring to his Son the Reverſion of a lucrative Place in Jamaica, which he himſelf now enjoys.

We hear that a Gentleman declared the other Day, that from the Fluctuations of India Stock, he has already cleared 35 per Cent. within theſe Ten Weeks, on a conſiderable Sum; a Profit not to be wondered at, conſidering the Stock has ſometimes varied 23 per Cent. in the Courſe of the Day.

Aug. 10. It is imagined, by many, that the Difficulties which the Miniſtry have thrown in the Way, to the ſending out the Supervifors appointed by the Eaſt-India Company, is in order to carry ſome Point in Favour of Mr. Vanſittart, by new modelling the Commiſſion, and ſending him either alone, or with ſupreme Power: It is likewiſe ſuppoſed that the Arrival of a certain Earl, has conduced much to the Confidence of forming the above Deſign, as more moderate views ſeemed ſatisfactory until that Time. When we conſider the Connection which has ſo long ſubſiſted between this Nobleman and that Gentleman's Siſter, and his Influence in the Meaſures of Adminiſtration, there ſeems all the Reaſon poſſible for believing what is above aſſerted.

Several Policies are opened about the Royal Exchange, on the Succeſs of Mr. Moor's Machine. The general Terms are Ten Guineas in Hand, to receive One Hundred if the Machine travels Twenty Miles in Three Hours, on any Turnpike Road, in Two Months from Auguſt.

Auguſt 12. An Anecdote has lately been handed about that Samuel Vaughan, Eſq; who for ſome Time paſt has appeared as a very warm Patriot, has written a Letter to the Duke of Grafton, offering the Sum of 3000 l. for the Reverſion of the Office of Clerk of the Crown in Jamaica for his Son, being a Patent Place, and the preſent Poſſeſſor very much advanced in Years, who is the only Surviver of Three, to whom the Patent was originally granted.

The Friends of Mr. Vaughan affect to excuſe him, by giving out that theſe Places are uſually diſpoſed of by thoſe in Power for valuable Conſiderations, which are looked on in the Light of Perquiſites of Office; but, on the other Hand, it is obſerved that if the Gentleman had not been conſcious of the Criminality of the Meaſure he would not have taken the Oath of Secrecy before the Lord Mayor, which it is ſaid he did.

The ſaid Mr. Vaughan, we are told, in a Viſit he made to a certain Patriot in St. George's-Fields, took Notice that he had committed a groſs Blunder in not keeping a Copy of the Letter; to which the other replied, that in his Opinion the greateſt Miſtake was his not keeping the Original.

It is ſaid that the Friends of the Marquis of Rockingham, and thoſe of the Earl of Chatham, will have a Meeting before the opening of the next Seſſion, in order to conſider of a proper Plan for adopting ſuch Meaſures as will preſerve the conſtitutional Rights of the People.

A private Gentleman in the Upper Part of the County of Wicklow, in Ireland, has within theſe Three or Four Months inoculated, according to Dr. Dimſdale's Method, no leſs than 1568, with unparallelled Succeſs, who were ſupplied by him with Medicines and Neceſſaries, and without any other Fee or Reward than the Pleaſure ariſing from the Reflection of having freed ſo conſiderable a Number of the Community from ſo fatal and depopulating a Diſtemper.

Aug. 15. By the Couriers that are continually paſſing and repaſſing from Fonthill, the Seat of our illuſtrious Alderman Beckford, to Lord Shelburne's in Wiltſhire, and Lord Temple's in Buckinghamſhire, we begin to entertain great Hopes that not only new Men will be appointed to the Miniſtry but alſo Meaſures entirely new will be ſoon adopted, for it is impoſſible either for the Safety of the King or of the People to have the old and tyranical Meaſures any longer continued. Though the Subject has all the Reaſon in the World to be diſſatisfied with the ſanguinary and deſpotick Adminiſtration of the Bedford execrated Faction, yet it is not ſo much the Man as the Meaſures that now gives a general Alarm to every Part of the Britiſh Empire.

It is rumoured that the Rev. Mr. Horne is poſſeſſed of every written Meſſage which paſſed between a certain Set of People in negotiating the Buſineſs of an American Patent, and alſo a Bond which was given by Col. ——— to Mrs. B———, as a Security for the Place, or return of the Money. Theſe Materials, it is ſaid, the Rev. Gentleman will produce in the Courſe of his Pleadings in the Court of King's-Bench, if a Profecution ſhould be commenced before the firſt Day of next Term; if not, it is ſaid he will favour the Public with a Peruſal of them in the News-Papers.

It is now ſaid that a certain Gentleman in the City wrote Two Letters to a Noble Duke, the Second about Ten Days after the former; the Firſt not producing any Anſwer, he accompanied the Second Letter with a long Affidavit, of a very particular Nature.

It is ſaid that Lord Holland is indefatigable in preparing his Accounts, in order to have them as forward as poſſible by the Meeting of the next Seſſion, if they ſhould then be called for.

By Accounts from Verſailles we hear that an Engliſh Gentleman has lately been taken into Cuſtody there, for defrauding a French Nobleman of a conſiderable Sum of Money at the Game of Hazard. The Dice were cut open on the Spot, and found to be loaded. It is ſaid the Offender will be ſent to the Gallies.

Lord Bute travelled in ſo private a Manner while he was abroad that he was not accompanied during the whole Time of his Retirement by any more than Two private Gentlemen, Mr. Charles, formerly Preceptor to the late Prince Frederick, and Mr. Simmonds.

We hear that a Reverend Duelliſt is prohibited preaching in the Dioceſe of London.

Aug. 17. The Letter that lately appeared in the public Papers, purporting to be from Samuel Vaughan, Eſq; to the Duke of Grafton, is entirely a Forgery, and does not contain a ſingle Sentence of the real Letter; and it is with Pleaſure we can aſſure the Public, that the Accounts which have been publiſhed of Mr. Vaughan's Application to the Duke of Grafton exceedingly miſrepreſent the Fact.

It is obſerved that if the Miniſtry gain their Point in the preſent Diſpute with the Eaſt-India Company, it will be as fatal to the latter as the late Deciſion for the County of Middleſex was to the Freeholders Right of Election in general.

It is reported, at the Weſt-End of the Town, that the following great Perſons are to compoſe a new Miniſtry: Firſt Lord of the Treaſury, Duke of Bedford; Chancellor of the Exchequer, Jer. Dyſon, Eſq; Lord Chancellor, Lord Mansfield; Secretaries of State, the Earls of Sandwich and Gower; Prefident of the Council, the Duke of Grafton; Lord Privy Seal, the Duke of Marlborough; Lord Chief Juſtice, Sir Fletcher Norton.

We are informed that a certain dignified Nabob is making vaſt Purchaſes in the County of Salop. Several Surveyors and Conveyancers, have been employed for this laſt Fortnight in meaſuring the Land, and ſearching into the Titles of the different Proprietors of the Eſtates that come within this immenſe Tract.

It is talked that Lord George Sackville will ſoon be appointed Paymaſter of the Forces.

Yeſterday Afternoon a great Lawyer had the Honour of a long Conference with his Majeſty at Richmond.

Some Scenes that have been opened, in Conſequence of Letters lately ſent from the Weſt to the Eaſt-End of the Town, we are well informed, will greatly retard, if not entirely ſet aſide, the Intention of ſending out Commiſſioners to India.

It is confidently reported that a patriotic Alderman, who is known to be a determined Man, has publicly declared that, as one of the City Repreſentatives, and alſo as one of the Gentlemen who preſented the Livery of London's Petition to the Crown, it will be neceſſary to requeſt a categorical Anſwer to the ſaid Petition on the 24th of this Month, unleſs the Grievances complained of be redreſſed before that Day.

A certain Miniſter in the late Reign, whoſe Virtues and Abilities were at a Pitch with thoſe of the noble Duke who is ſo deſervedly the Idol of the People, was honeſt and wiſe enough to confeſs, that his Reaſon for refuſing a very conſiderable Bribe for obtaining a Place was becauſe he had received a much greater the Day before on the ſame Account. Some particular Circumſtances muſt apologize for a Requeſt which is here made to the Duke of Grafton, to inform the Public whether Mr. Vaughan's Offer of 5000 l. was not refuſed becauſe R. W.'s of 5500 l. had been already accepted?

Many Merchants in Jamaica have called a Sale for their Negroes, and are about to ſet off with their Effects for New-York, on account of the Slackneſs of Trade.

They write from New-York that Workmen and Manufacturers of every Kind are continually arriving there and at Philadelphia from England, ſo that in a few Years they ſhall be able to ſupply every Neceſſary among themſelves.

The Woman who had the Honour of a late Interview with a great Admiral at Portſmouth has within theſe few Days been introduced to another great Perſonage, and it is ſaid will be provided for.

A Letter from Mantua, dated July 19th, ſays; Gen. Paoli arrived here Yeſterday, with M. Saliceti, and was preſented to the Emperor of Germany, who gave him a very obliging Reception, and permitted him to be preſent at the Aſſembly in the Evening. Paoli is entertained at Court, and will continue ſome Days in this Country.

Saturday Two young Girls were brought before the Lord Mayor for aſſaulting each other in the Street, and alſo for charging each other with a Robbery. It appeared before his Lordſhip that they were each unhappy common Proſtitutes, both under 16 Years of Age; and their Mothers expreſſed the moſt tender Affection for them, as well as their utmoſt Abhorrence for their Manner of Life, and begged of his Lordſhip to recommend them to the Magdalen Charity, declaring at the ſame Time, that young as they were yet, they were ſeduced by ſpecious and unmeaning Promiſes of Perſons whoſe Station in Life ought to have prevented diſhonour. However, his Lordſhip, with his wonted Humanity, was pleaſed to recommend them as they deſired; and at the ſame Time reminded them from hence to be Cautious how they put Confidence in Man, who for a momentary Gratification would forfeit Honour, Juſtice, and Reputation, to the inevitable Ruin of the young, unthinking, ſoft, and amiable Part of their Sex, who ought in Juſtice to claim our Protection, alſo declaring, he felt himſelf ſenſibly hurt, that any Creature who bore the divine Image, ſhould ſo far debaſe himſelf, as to be guilty of a young Woman's Ruin, whom he ought to ſupport in the Path of Morality, and to deem it a Piece of Gallantry.

Aug. 19. There are more important Subjects on the Carpet at preſent, than have ever been before; Matter of public Diſcuſſion.

It is now ſaid that the Friends of a noble Lord will be the firſt that will move in a great Aſſembly for his Accounts to be laid before them, ſo Confident are they of the Rectitude of his Proceedings.

A Petition from the City of Weſtminſter was read on Wedneſday at the Globe Tavern in the Strand, and unanimouſly agreed to.

It is ſomewhat remarkable, that the Electors of Weſtminſter, have choſen the Day that St. John the Baptiſt was beheaded, for their Aſſembling in Weſtminſter-Hall, to conſider of a Petition to his Majeſty.

They write from Worceſter, that both the City and County are almoſt unanimous in forwarding a Petition of Grievances, though Miniſterial Influence has been greatly exerted to prevent it.

A Letter from Bridgewater mentions, that at the Meeting at the Races for the ſaid Town, the Senſe of the Gentlemen then preſent was taken with Regard to petitioning, who were all unanimous for a Petition, and the Sheriff was deſired to advertiſe a County-Meeting for that Purpoſe.

A Correſpondent deſires to know, that as the Miniſtry have ſeized on Grants; cauſed America almoſt to prohibit Trading with us; entirely overthrown the Freedom of Elections; and are now ſtriking a moſt powerful Blow at the Eaſt-India Company; what will be their next Object!

Yeſterday a Meſſenger was ſent Expreſs to his Grace the Duke of Grafton, at his Seat at Whittlebury Foreſt in Northamptonſhire.

We hear that in Conſequence of ſome Intelligence received from Senegal, Two Men of War will ſoon ſail for the Coaſt of Africa, for the better Protection of that Trade.

Letters from Hanover, dated Auguſt 8, ſay, "The Duke of Glouceſter arrived here the 3d Inſtant, from the Court of Denmark, and propoſes to continue his Journey the Day after To-morrow. It is aſſured that his Royal Highneſs will not go to ſee any other Courts, but return directly to England."

Letters from Vienna, dated Auguſt 2, ſay, "The Interview between the Emperor and the King of Pruſſia gains more Credit every Day. The Letters from Sileſia and Berlin, particularly mention that the Emperor will ſpend a few Days at the Camp, which is to be formed near Colin in Bohemia, conſiſting of Eight Regiments of Infantry under the Command of General Laudohn; and go from thence to Neiſs to meet the King of Pruſſia. It is aſſured that his Imperial Majeſty has deſired to ſee the Exerciſe of the Pruſſian Cavalry, and requeſted of the King of Pruſſia to bring with him General Seidlitz whom he particularly wiſhes to converſe with."

Letters arrived Yeſterday from the Continent adviſe, that the Ruſſians have taken Choczim, in which they found a conſiderable Booty. The Grand Viſir's Army had halted between Jaſſy and Bender, to wait for the Aſiatic Reinforcements; but as Prince Gallitzin was in full March towards him, it was ſuppoſed a deciſive Battle would be fought before they could join him.

We hear from Paris, that the Epidemical Sickneſs among the French Soldiers at Corſica increaſes daily, and carries off vaſt Numbers, which has occaſioned the Court to ſend for moſt of the Regiments employed in the Conqueſt of that Iſland back to France.

A Morning Paper ſays, a Right Honourable Defaulter declared at his own Table, within theſe few Days, to ſeveral Gentlemen, that he was ſo far from being ſorry at the public Arrangement of his Honour and Integrity, that he ſhould hold it as the happieſt Incident of his Life; being no Ways doubtful, but that he ſhould clear himſelf from the Imputation in a Manner that would Place him beyond the Malice of his Enemies, and ſeat him where they would leaſt of all wiſh him to be; namely, in the good Opinion and Confidence of the People.

On Wedneſday Night laſt, at the Meeting of the Electors for the City and Liberty of Weſtminſter at the Globe Tavern in the Strand, Robert Jones Eſq; of Hill-Street, Berkley-Square, was in the Chair, and made a very eloquent Speech. A Letter from a certain patriotic Alderman, declaring his firm and determined Reſolution to ſupport them, to the utmoſt of his Power, was read, and met with univerſal Approbation.

There will be no Petition from the County of Hertford, as the Court Party, being very powerful, have fruſtrated every Attempt to aſſemble the Freeholders.

Letters from Cork mention, that ſeveral Outrages have been lately committed in the dead Time of the Night in that County, by a Number of Rapparees, who are out in Arms; they lately, on the Barony of Iveragh, deſtroyed Eight Bullocks, and Twenty-eight Heifers, belonging to William Fuller, Eſq; by houghing and maiming them in a barbarous Manner.

Letters from Leghorn mention, that it is thought the Malecontents of Corſica only wait for the Re-embarkation of the French Troops, on their return home, to break out into open Hoſtilities.

They write from Gibraltar, that Two Sallettine Zebecks, mounting Twenty Guns each, are now cruizing between the Streights Mouth and Cape Rouge, on the African Coaſt, and had taken ſeveral Portuguese Prizes.

We hear that this Morning an Expreſs was ſent off from the Office of Admiralty, Charing-Croſs, to the Commiſſioners of the Dock-Yards of Portſmouth and Plymouth.

We hear Admiral Edgecombe will be appointed to ſucceed Admiral Pye, in the Command of the Windward Iſland Squadron, in the Weſt-Indies.

It is now confidently ſaid that Weſtminſter-Hall will not be ſhut againſt the Electors of Weſtminſter, who have appointed a Meeting there next Tueſday to conſider of a Petition to his Majeſty on the preſent Situation of Affairs; and further that no ſuch Step was ever intended.

We hear that on Tueſday, the Inventor of the Machine to travel without Horſes, laid a Wager of 100 Guineas to 100, at Gerrard's-Hall-Inn, in Baſing-Lane, with an eminent Merchant, that his ſaid Machine ſhould arrive at York ſooner than the York Waggon, which is to be determined next Week.

A few Days ago an Emetic was adminiſtered to the Right Honourable Lord Holland, and to the Surprize of all preſent, he caſt up One Million Sterling. His Phyſicians ordered the Emetic to be continued every Month 'til December, 1770, when Forty Millions, at preſent unaccounted for, will be returned without Intereſt.

The following Circumſtances attended the Robbery of Lord Weymouth.——His Lordſhip, with his Lady, was riding in their Coach down Ember-Lane, near Mr. Onſlow's in Surry, when the Highwayman firſt rode by the Coach, and at the ſame Time pulled out a Piſtol, which only Lady Weymouth ſeeing, ſhe immediately cried out, "See the Piſtol!" and fainted away; on this Lord Weymouth directly threw his Purſe out of the Coach Door, wherein were Twenty Guineas, and ordered the Fellow to ride off as faſt as poſſible. It is ſaid, this Highwayman was convicted of a Robbery, and ſentenced for Tranſportation, about Six Months ago, but received his Majeſty's Pardon ſigned by Lord Weymouth, which in ſome Reſpect verifies the old Proverb, Save a Rogue from the Gallows, and he'll cut your Throat.

We hear from Dantzick that the Tartars have made a ſudden Incurſion into the Ukraine, deſolated all the Country, and maſſacred and carried ſeveral Thouſands of the Inhabitants into Slavery.

A Correſpondent has ſent the following Piece of Intelligence. On Monday the 10th of April laſt one Coady, a Milkman, in Caſtle-Street, Seven Dials, had the following Viſion: "His Nephew, Son and Daugh-"ter, who were all dead, appeared to him as he lay "awake in his Bed, and told him to prepare himſelf, "for that he was to die at a Quarter after Five the "Wedneſday Morning following." At which he was ſo much alarmed that the next Day he beſpoke his Coffin, went to Pancras Church Yard, and there marked out the Ground for his Grave; after which he came home, was taken ill, and died exactly at the Time predicted by the Viſion.

It is reported Lord Harcourt has received his Letters of recall from the Court of Verſailles.

(2w) HARRISON LANE.

I HEREBY give Notice to my Creditors, that my Reaſons for not complying with their Propoſals, are, that my pretended Friends have not complied with their kind Offers, and my Creditors have taken all the Advantages they poſſibly could to run me to Expences, which have involved me ſo low in the World, that I cannot commence Law-Suits againſt ſuch Perſons as are juſtly owing me upwards of Half as much as would diſcharge my ſeveral Creditors Claims, and I have no other Method to obtain my Liberty, than by applying to the next General Aſſembly of this Province, to paſs an Act in my Favour, and by giving up my Eſtate both Real and Perſonal to my Creditors, to redeem my Body out of the Jail in Charles County.

RAN away from the Subscriber, living in Philadelphia, an English Servant Man, named THOMAS TAYLOR, by Trade a Shoemaker, he is of a low Stature, slim made, mark'd with the Small-Pox, and has dark Hair: Had on, a brown Jacket without Sleeves, black Buckskin Breeches, Check Shirt, an old Hat. He has changed his Name, and calls himself JOHN SMITH, and has been confined in Baltimore Jail, but through his false Name was discharged: He has been seen on the Road between this Town and Annapolis, and it is supposed he is gone towards Virginia.——Whoever delivers the said Servant, to Thomas Hyde, in Annapolis, or to the Subscriber, shall receive Three Pounds Reward, in Lieu of what the Law allows.

JOSEPH GAVIN.

To be SOLD, by the Subscriber, at Public Sale, to the highest Bidder, on Tuesday the 21st of November Inst. for Sterling Cash, good London Bills of Exchange, or Current Money,

THREE Acres of Land, lying in Piscataway, in Prince-George's County, whereon is a good Dwelling-House, Thirty-two by Twenty-eight Feet, Four Rooms below and Four above, a good Store-House, Twenty by Sixteen Feet, ceiled round with Inch Plank, and an Eight Feet Shed, the Length of the House double studded, a large Kitchen, with a Brick Chimney and Oven, a Stable, built with Two Inch Plank let into the Posts, Thirty-six by Twelve Feet, with a large Hay-Room above, a Meat-House, Twelve Feet Square, built as the Stable, with several other Out-Houses, a good Garden, about Eight Hundred Feet Round, all new Locust and Mulberry Posts, saw'd Rails and Pales, and a large Yard, paled in Round the House: The Land lies close to the Creek, which makes it covenient for any Trade or Calling. Also will be Sold, a young Negro Woman, some Horses, Cattle and Hogs, and sundry other Necessaries too tedious to mention. Credit will be given for one Half of the purchase Money for the Land and Houses, on giving Bond and Security if required, by

(ts) ALEXANDER BURRELL.

N. B. If I dont sell the above Houses, I will Rent or Lease them upon moderate Terms.

Baltimore-Town, September 12, 1769,

THE Subscriber hereby gives public Notice that he has begun Inoculation, at his Dwelling-House, which stands distant from Baltimore-Town, Half a Mile, is a healthy Situation, and an agreeable Prospect.——His Price as before, Two Pistoles for Inoculation, and Twenty Shillings per Week for Board. And as the Sickness is so trifling, and the Confinement none, the Expence need not exceed Five Pounds Fourteen Shillings, or Six Pounds Currency; and may be inoculated any Month in the Year, July and August excepted.

I shall be obliged to those who will favour me with their Custom; and they may depend on being carefully and tenderly dealt with, by

Their humble Servant,
HENRY STEVENSON.

N. B. Those who intend coming, are desired not to change their Manner of Diet, or use any Preparation before hand, as it is rather prejudicial than otherwise.

TEN PISTOLES REWARD.

STOLEN the 4th of this Instant, at Night, out of Mr. DICK's Stable, at London-Town, a dark brown HORSE, such a Colour as is commonly called black, with a Star in his Forehead, and his Tail nick'd and dock'd, he is partly English Blood, which is discoverable in his Appearance. The Horse has been used to a Carriage, and trots well, that being his natural Gait, but he paces when he is rode, though very awkwardly; his Tail was spoil'd in the Nicking, and hangs in a very particular Manner; he has lately been fired in one of his hind Legs, which occasions one Ancle to be bigger than the other, and his off hind Hoof is very remarkable, being much wore with dragging in his Pace.——Whoever secures the Horse and brings the Thief to Justice, so that he be convicted, shall be paid by me, Ten Pistoles; or, whoever brings the Horse, to Mr. Dick, at London-Town, or me at Annapolis, shall be rewarded for their Trouble.

ANTHONY STEWART.

N. B. It is supposed the Horse was stolen by a Fellow, who that same Night rob'd Mr. Maybury, of this City, of some Money, and Mr. Evit of a Saddle and Bridle: He induced a Boy, who lodged in Mr. Maybury's Shop, to open the Door and let him in, from whence he stole the Money, and persuaded the Boy to go with him, but he left the Boy in Baltimore, who is since returned to his Master.

To be SOLD, by the Subscribers, at their Store at Pig-Point, on Patuxent River by Wholesale,

ABOUT £. 950 first Cost of Goods, for Current Money, Sterling Bills of Exchange, or short Credit, on very reasonable Terms.
